

The Academic Pandemic of 2019

Louis Komjathy 康思奇, Ph.D.
The Underground University (TUU)

Almost everyone I knew died in the Academic Pandemic of 2019.

Some died of cowardice. Others of hypocrisy.

Some died of duplicity. Others of betrayal.

Some died of mediocrity. Others of conformity.

Some died of abuse. Others of neglect.

Some died of chicanery. Others of sycophancy.

Few were spared from the systemic corruption and their own complicity.

