The Dàoàng yàojí xuǎnkān 道藏要籍選刊 (Essential Selections from the Daoist Canon; abbrev. XK) is an “extra-canonical” and “supplemental” Daoist textual collection. As the title suggests, it is a selection of important texts from the received Dàoàng 道藏 (dat. 1445/1607; abbrev. DZ). The collection was edited by Hú Dàoìng 胡道靜 (1913-2003), Chén Liánshēng 陳蓮笙 (1917-2008), and Chén Yàotíng 陳耀庭 (b. 1933) and published by Shànghǎi gǔjí chūbǎn shè 上海古籍出版社 in 1989. It consists of ten volumes, with each page reproducing, on three horizontal registers, recto and verso of three folios of the original woodblock pages. The collection utilizes Western-style pagination and excludes the original Chinese-style pagination. The volumes are untitled, but the editors grouped the texts according to specific topics and categories. These include classics (jīngdiǎn 經典), miscellaneous subjects (bǎikē 百科), master’s literature (zǐshū 子書), histories and biographies (shǐzhuàng 史傳), geographical annals/topographies (dìzhì 地志), etiquette (yífàn 儀範), and nourishing life/health maintenance (shèyǎng 攝養). According to the present index, there are 146 texts, or about one-tenth of the received Dàoàng. Each volume lists the text contained there, including the starting page number of the associated text. Volume 10 also contains four related indexes:

道藏目錄 (611)
讀道藏記 (707)
道藏考略目錄 (725)
道藏要籍選刊總目索引 (1-7)

The final piece is the finding index for the entire contents of the collection itself.

The present index includes the associated XK number, the volume and starting page number of each associated text, as well as the DZ number as appearing in my Title Index to Daoist Collections (2002; abbrev. TIDC). The latter parallels those of Kristofer Schipper 施舟人 (1934-2021) and his colleagues, namely, as first established in the Concordance du Tao-tsang: Titres des ouvrages (1975; abbrev. CT/DZ) and more recently reproduced and utilized in the Historical Companion to the Daozang (2004; abbrev. HCDZ). When the text in question is a commentary, I include the author (if known) in parentheses. I also have kept the characters as they appear in each title. The main, potentially disorienting feature is the oscillation between 註/注, 疏/疏, 咒/呪, and 眞/真. I have preserved these variants in order to approximate the actual encounter with the collection and the associated reading experience.
