

Against Spiritualist Publishers

There are a variety of popular spiritualist publishers that (apparently intentionally) only publish inaccurate and unreliable books on “Daoism.” These are rooted in hybrid spirituality and spiritual capitalism, including in the form of Popular Western Taoism (PWT). Said publishers are involved in and perpetuate a “conspiracy of ignorance” with(out) respect to the indigenous Chinese and now global religious tradition which is Daoism.

For individuals interested in tradition-based Daoism and committed to authentic Daoist practice-realization, the following publishers should be avoided.

Aurora Press

Seven Star Communications

Shambhala

Singing Dragon

Sounds (Un) True

Tao Publishing

Tuttle

YMAA Publishing Center
